Lag B'Omer: A Reprieve from Mourning

---

Traditionally there are two times a year for communal mourning: between Passover and Lag B'Omer and the 3 weeks between the 17th of Tammuz and the 9th of Av. These are times when one refrains from getting married, going to concerts and cutting one's hair. Currently we are in the period of mourning for the students of Rabbi Akiva.

In Talmud Yevamot 61b, we are taught that during the period of counting the omer, the 12,000 pairs of students of Rabbi Akiva perished on one day. The initial reason the Talmud gives is that they did not have kavod (honor or respect) for one another. The Talmud next presents the opinion that they were struck down by a mysterious plague. Because the students of Rabbi Akiva did not have civil discourse with one another, they were struck down by a plague.

No one is certain when the tradition of mourning occurs during the Omer period. One opinion is from the first day of counting (2nd Seder) to Lag B'Omer (the 33rd day of counting). Another opinion is that the mourning begins on Rosh Hodesh Iyar and continues through Shavuot. A third opinion is that one mourns the entire 50 days of the Omer. All agree, however, that the plague did not strike on Lag B'Omer and that this is a day of celebration, when people should get haircuts, marry and have fun and merriment.

We will be incorporating two of the traditions of Lag B'Omer in our own way at Bet Shira. While we will not do a bonfire as is done in Israel (I have learned many South Floridians have never been to a bonfire!) we will be reenacting some of the traditions on Lag B'Omer.

It is customary for children to shoot bows and arrows, and while we will not be doing archery, we will have a night of Extreme Axe Throwing on Thursday April 29 at 8:00 pm. The cost is $40 per adult and I hope you will sign up. We will also follow the tradition of field games, having a picnic and doing relay races at Coral Reef Park on Sunday May 2 from 3:00-5:00 pm.

If you have never celebrated Lag B'Omer this year, I hope you will join Bet Shira at one of these two events. Of course, I also hope that we will treat each other with kavod, honor, at all times to distance ourselves from the example of Rabbi Akiva's students.

Wait for it. Wait. Wait. Wait.

I've never been very good at waiting. Yet here we are again. We're waiting for Shavuot and counting the days.

Waiting for that revelation.

Waiting for blintzes and cheesecake.

Waiting for semesters to end. Waiting for hot summer days.

We are waiting to come back. To come back to the time before Covid-19.

To easily sit together and have Shabbat lunch without thinking about masks, hand sanitizer, shaking hands.

To come back for Kiddush.

To come back to saying hello to each other without worrying about the distance.

We want you to know we are all waiting, together but separate.

We have enhanced our services with the wonderful voices of Sharon Alcalay-Leibovici and Shir Rozzen.

Our High Holiday plans are taking shape and Sharon Alcalay-Leibovici has promised to be with us.

We promise that the coming high holidays will be worth waiting for.

Wait for it. Wait. Wait. Wait.

On a technical note if you are having connection problems with services please email ritual@betshira.org.
