PRESIDENT

Steven Goldstein

Our new 2021-2022 fiscal year is barely underway, yet so much is going on here at Bet Shira!

Rabbi Jesse has been here a month and he has been stamping his imprint on our congregation. I recall his first two days here, a Friday and a Saturday, and helping guide him through the particular details of our Shabbat services. Fast forward to now, and he is conducting those services like a seasoned Bet Shira veteran!

We have already rolled out the first in a series of meet-and-greets with Rabbi Jesse at congregants' homes. There will be more to come, so if you would like to get together and chat in a small group setting, please let the office know and our Membership Committee will set you up.

Opportunities for education abound, as Rabbi Jesse has instituted teaching sessions following some of our Havdalah and minyan services. If there is a topic you are interested in learning about, just let us know and we will try to work it into our offerings.

We also know how to have fun at Bet Shira. On August 14 we will be cheering on the Miami Marlins as they face the Atlanta Braves at Loan Depot Park on Jewish Heritage Day. Admittedly, it can be frustrating rooting for the Marlins as they go through their struggles, particularly for transplants like myself who remember the successes of the teams we grew up with (in my case, the New York Mets). Nevertheless, we have an enjoyable afternoon awaiting us.

As this bulletin goes to press, we are wrapping up another successful season of our summer camp, Camp Kef. We thank our ECC Director Dorit Kadouri, her staff of teachers, our Executive Director Chelsea Rego, our ECC Vice President Richard Rosengarten, and everyone else who played a role in the camp's success. It was a truly meaningful experience for our youngsters.

Our new tenant, True North, is moving in and gearing up for the upcoming school year. Just as they are getting settled in, our ECC is getting settled in to its new temporary quarters on the second floor of our school building. We are also moving forward with our plans for the more permanent ECC relocation on our campus.

Before we know it, the High Holidays will be here. While COVID may never go away completely and we need to remain vigilant, we are planning for our first live services since 2019. We look forward to seeing you in person in the sanctuary on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Rabbi Jesse Charyn

Na'eem me'od (nice to meet you) I'm Rabbi Jesse. I started here at Bet Shira on July 1st. I'm filled with kavod and ruach to be your rabbi. I was born and raised in Chattanooga, TN. After high school graduation I attended Hadassah's Young Judaea Year Course, a gap year program that offered university credits and an opportunity to volunteer and get to experience life in Israel. I had a phenomenal gap year experience which resulted in my making Aliyah and serving in Golani Special Forces in the IDF. While I was a soldier I met our Rebbetzin as she was attending Year Course. After a few months of dating, Shira convinced me to leave Israel where I had been living in the Negev desert and trade it for the Sonoran desert. I joined Shira at Arizona State University where we both completed our undergraduate studies. I then began my rabbinical studies, initially at Ziegler (where I had incredible professors and made life-long friends) then at the Reconstructionist Rabbinical College (where I again formed strong bonds with peers and mentors). I then spent some time immersed in the frum world studying in a Yeshivah in the Old City of Jerusalem and transferring to the former Rosh Yeshiva's new community in Phoenix, AZ (of all places!). I then pursued chaplaincy at a Trauma I medical center in Phoenix and after completing chaplaincy residency was offered a chaplain role in a Continuous Care Retirement Community in AZ. From there an opportunity presented itself to lead a Reform congregation in the metro Atlanta, GA area. Most recently I returned to senior care as the rabbi/Director of Spiritual Care at Miami Jewish Health. Within one week of our move to Miami we found Bet Shira Congregation. My route to the rabbinate was authentic and unconventional, qualities that you will find accurately sum me up. As a rabbi I am constantly aware that I represent my community. I could not be a rabbi without my rebbetzin. Shira and I have been together since she was 18 and I was 21. I'll be turning 39 in September. Judaism is a family endeavor and I am blessed to have Shira, Rayna, Navah, and Zivah involved in my rabbinate. For those of you not familiar with the role of a rebbetzin, it is not a formal role. It is essentially an extension of a rabbi (and in case you were wondering, a rebbetzin is the spouse of a rabbi). Shira is one of my dearest chevrusas (study partners). As a rabbi I am a religious and spiritual leader. Pastoral care is central to my rabbinic practice. My cell phone number is on my cards. If you need me I'm here for you. We are a family. I hold office hours, but I try to be out of my office as much as possible getting to know our Bet Shira family and our wider community in my service as an ambassador of Bet Shira. It is an honor and a calling to be a rabbi. I am privileged to be yours.

Rabbi Jesse Charyn

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Chelsea Rego

In a galaxy thirteen hundred miles away, there lived a genetically rare young girl with bright red hair, freckles galore, and piercing blue eyes. Her family consists of her hardworking father, creative mother, and three side kick sisters who were not lucky as she to have red hair and blue eyes. As the second oldest it was her job to act as a middle child. She played sports, learned piano, received academic honors, community service awards, leadership roles in student led organizations, and found time to work part time when she was just 15 years old. Her work ethic and dedication never wavered. Her excitement for life and passion to give back to her community led her to become a certified, badge wearing, stethoscope listening Emergency Medical Technician at 17 years old. Volunteering two to three shifts weekly was more than just chillin' with first responders, it was rewarding to know that lives were saved. This led to good feelings and a continued passion in the medical field. She moved to Bean-Town (Boston for us ordinary folk) where the tunnel system at Northeastern University saved her limbs from being frost bitten. Neuroscience with a focus on pre-medical courses was fun and the opportunities to volunteer in hospitals and research labs were galore. Then she met a boy, THE boy, strictly to study physics with. He had the genius idea to show her the warm, sunny world of Miami during the dreary month of December. They packed their bags, loaded up the car with two cats and a 50-gallon fish tank, and drove into the sunset. Their first major decision was to plan their wedding. Being married made them the power couple of FIU. Presenting research, volunteering 100's of hours in a hospital and growing a nonprofit, they knew hard work would continue to reward them in life. Five days after graduating Summa Cum Laude, and a member of Phi Beta Kappa, she was offered a job as an Administrative Assistant in a large private school. She excelled at her job, was promoted, but soon realized she would have to leave. New requirements, namely her expanding family, required her to be closer to home. This special red-haired, blue-eyed woman found an opportunity to learn the synagogue setting at Beth David's Gordon School before accepting the position of Chaos Coordinator at Bet Shira. Joining a week after the country went into shutdown, she has been creative and innovative in finding new ways to keep members connected. She loves being part of such a caring community. Fully committed to Bet Shira, she still finds time to continue to use her science skills to nurture curiosity and encourage inquiry in students through the Manifezt Foundation. When she isn't working or volunteering, she enjoys reliving her childhood through play with Xavi, her son, listening to podcasts, reading books, watching new movies, lifting weights, and sleeping.

Chelsea Rego

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Mary Ann Deaktor

I was born, raised and went to school in Philadelphia. I moved to Gainesville, Florida, in 1972 where my daughters, Rachael and Hallie were born. We moved to Miami in 1980 and I immediately enrolled my girls in Beth Am Day School. We soon joined Beth Am where I became a full-time volunteer and ultimately a Board member. I was soon offered a position as Assistant to the Executive Director and have been working at synagogues ever since. I was at Beth Am for 13 years. I then worked at Bet Breira as the assistant to Rabbi Barry Tabachnikoff z”l. After the death of Rabbi Tabachnikoff z”l I went to work at Temple Judea and was there for 14 years.

I love working here at Bet Shira and just celebrated my 5-year anniversary on July 11, 2022. I look forward to getting to know and working with Rabbi Jesse and to continuing to interact with our congregants. If I’m not able to help, I promise to find someone who will.

BOOKKEEPER

Harriet Mautner

I am Harriet Mautner, the newest member of the Bet Shira staff. Originally from New York, I have lived in South Florida since 1978 (in North Miami Beach/Aventura area. Please don’t hold that against me). I am lucky enough to say that my son and daughter both live in the Miami area, along with their families, including 2 grandchildren. I have been in the “Jewish” business since 1979, first as the bookkeeper of several kosher hotels in Miami Beach, and then as controller of a synagogue. In my spare time, I enjoy walking, hiking, snorkeling, biking, live concerts, traveling and spending time with my grandchildren. I am happy to join the Bet Shira family and look forward to meeting you. Feel free to stop by and say hello!

Harriet Mautner

RITUAL ASSISTANT

Avron Smolensky

I have been the Ritual Assistant at Bet Shira since I showed up in the fall 1988. My ritual responsibility has always been chanting Torah, which I learned while training as an adolescent with my Czechoslovakian Holocaust survivor teacher in Memphis, Tennessee. From 1988 until 2008 I taught Sunday Religious School music, and I trained occasional Bar and Bat Mitzvah students as assigned until 2018. In 2018 I assumed full Bar and Bat Mitzvah training responsibility. I taught elementary music in Dade County Public Schools from 1980 until my retirement in 2008. I also taught religious school at Congregation Bet Breira. Teaching music, Torah and our liturgy to our young people gives me great pleasure.

Bulletin News

As Bet Shira prepares for a new year, you will undoubtedly begin to see many changes. True North is officially here, the ECC has been temporarily relocated to the second floor of the school building, and of course, Rabbi Jesse Charyn is leading us in all things religious. We've also changed the bulletin a bit. This month we want you to get to know the friendly faces you see on campus every day. From administration to maintenance, to security, they are the folks who keep Bet Shira running smoothly. So, for this Bulletin, we're highlighting and introducing you to our staff.

Tallit Cleaning Notice

As we prepare to usher in 5783 we are having our tallitot cleaned. While this is being done we ask that you bring your personal tallit to services. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated.

Todah Rabah

EARLY CHILDHOOD CENTER DIRECTOR

Dorit Kadouri

I have been working with children for over 35 years. For the last 25 years I have been in preschool education. I began my career as a preschool teacher in New York City, was promoted to assistant director and then director. My experience has allowed me to work with children from all different backgrounds and cultures. It has also allowed me to develop strong leadership skills and a positive attitude towards life. Two years ago, I moved to Florida to be closer to my family and was fortunate to join The Bet Shira Early Childhood Center. I have a strong commitment to quality care and education. As an early childhood director, I prioritize meeting the parent's expectations by creating a safe learning environment that adequately meets each child's developmental needs. I believe that each child is unique and has infinite potential.

Dorit Kadouri

ECC ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

Katherine Hernandez

Katherine Hernandez ("Kat") is our Administrative Assistant in The Bet Shira Early Childhood Center. She has four years of administrative experience and six years in customer service, making her a friendly, motivated, and helpful addition to the Bet Shira family. She enjoys working closely with Dorit Kadouri, our ECC Director, assisting new and returning families, as well as facilitating all day-to-day preschool tasks. The best part of her job is greeting and interacting with the children. Katherine received her Bachelor's degree in English Literature from Florida International University. When she is not working, she enjoys reading, rom-coms, Target runs, and spending time with her family.

MUSICAL DIRECTOR

Dr. Alan Mason

I became the Musical Director of Bet Shira Congregation on July 1, 2021. My initiation was seamless, as I have been known to you, and you have been known to me for well over 30 years. I have the joy of playing the piano for services every Friday evening, working closely with Rabbi Jesse and Cantorial Soloist Sharon in the selecting and arranging of weekly music for worship and celebration. I have enjoyed presenting the Bet Shira Celebration Choir, a paid professional ensemble, on several significant occasions, and look forward to a lovely year of holiday programming and beautiful music filling the Sanctuary.

Dr. Alan Mason

CANTORIAL SOLOIST

Sharon Alcalay-Leibovici

Sharon is a heartfelt singer who can perform a repertoire of music from Broadway show tunes to pop, and especially Jewish Cantorial pieces, Her professional career began when she was accepted as a singer to the entertainment unit of the Israeli Army. After completing her two-year service for the IDF, Sharon returned to Tel Aviv University, where she earned a B.A. in Musical Theater Arts, Drama Therapy, Clown Care & Directing. Sharon is also a graduate of the “Rimon School of Music-Israel/Berkley and Tel Aviv University where she majored in Voice & Vocal performance. While in Israel, Sharon performed all over the country, including entertaining the Israeli troops. For the past 22 years Sharon had served as a Cantorial Soloist for the High Holiday and other religious services. Sharon released a children's CD & workbook entitled, Hebrew in Song, and is now a teacher and the head of public relations of the Rozzen School of the Arts in Boynton Beach. Sharon graces us with her music on Friday nights and at our High Holiday services.

ADULT EDUCATION

Hagit Simkovic

Shalom Chaverim of Bet Shira,

My parents, brothers and I became members of Bet Shira (Beth David at that time) when we came from Israel, in January 1981 - 41 years ago. I grew up in Israel, served in the Israeli army and went to the University of Haifa, studying psychology and special Ed. In Miami I married my wonderful husband, Martin Simkovic, in 1985. I continued my education and got certified by CAJE as a Judaic studies and Hebrew language teacher. I taught at Beth Am Day School for 22 years, where both of my kids, Jordan and Tori attended. Currently I teach at the JCC and Bet Shira adult Hebrew classes. Coming to Bet Shira on Shabbat is always one of the highlights of my week!

Here is the schedule of my Bet Shira classes:

- Monday: 9:30 AM - 10:30 AM - Hebrew reading and Haftarah Cantillation.
10:30 AM - 12:00 PM - an advanced Hebrew conversation class.
12:00 PM - 1:00 PM - an intermediate Hebrew conversation class.
- Tuesday: 6:30 PM - 7:30 PM - a beginning/intermediate Hebrew class.

Hagit Simkovic

INTERIM MARKETING COORDINATOR

Aaron Crair

I have been interim marketing coordinator at Bet Shira for about 3 months now, but Bet Shira has been a part of my life for much longer. In fact, I had my bar mitzvah here almost 14 years ago. My main responsibility is to communicate events to the congregation. I write many of the emails that you receive every week, whether it's wishing you a Shabbat Shalom or telling you about the next fun holiday celebration. I design the Shabbat programs shared at our Friday night and Saturday morning services. I also designed and assembled the bulletin you're reading right now, along with the June bulletin. While I don't know how long I will be filling this role, I thank Bet Shira for giving me this opportunity, and I look forward to communicating future events to bring our congregation closer together.

Aaron Crair

HEAD OF MAINTENANCE

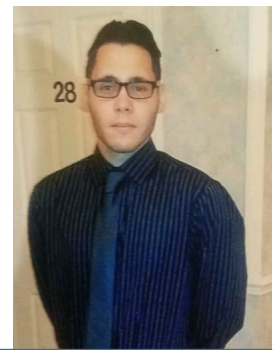

Gustavo Acevedo

My name is Gustavo Acevedo of Cleaningtech, Inc. and I have been serving Bet Shira families for the last 7 years. My main responsibility is to have the facility ready to start every day, beginning at 6:30 AM until we close. I also assist the Administration Office as well as the Rabbi, Sisterhood, Religious School and the Early Childhood Center with their needs for various programs and services. I feel proud to be working at Bet Shira and am grateful to be part of the Bet Shira family.

Gustavo Acevedo

HEAD OF SECURITY

Yerson Arias

Yerson Arias, our armed security guard, will usually be the first face you see when you enter the Bet Shira campus. Born in Cuba and raised in Europe, Yerson speaks English, Spanish and Portuguese. He has been active in martial arts for more than 8 years. He sees himself as family oriented and a free thinker. We are so glad that he is now a member of our Bet Shira family.
